DAILY READINGS

*"I saw one like a son of man coming with the clouds of heaven...
...To him was given dominion and glory
and kingship, that all peoples, nations,
and languages should serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed."* Daniel 7:13-14

FEBRUARY 2019

Dear Friend,

If you've ever moved home then you'll understand something of what is going on in our house at the present time. With the time of our move approaching fast, we are currently in that manic decluttering mode that seems to suddenly descend on anyone who knows that the removal men will soon be at the door!

As I reflected upon this activity a couple of thoughts struck me, and they are relevant to our faith journey just as much as they are to our daily living.

Firstly, most of us probably need to think about what things we hold on to. All too often it is only at times of moving or bereavement that we even begin to think about what we have hidden around our homes - things that have been held on to because 'they might come in useful one day', and things that have been put away and then forgotten about entirely.

Perhaps there is a need for all of us to spend time looking at what we have around us on a regular basis.

Then there is our spiritual life. How often do we think about what might be cluttering up our hearts, minds, and emotions? What things might we need to let go of or throw out because they are getting in the way of following our Lord more closely day by day?

Day by day
Oh dear Lord,
three things I pray:
To see thee more clearly,
Love thee more dearly,
Follow thee more nearly,
Day by day.

In His name, Martyn
