DAILY READINGS

*"The Lord is good,
a stronghold on a day of trouble;
he protects those who take refuge in him"*

Nahum 1:7

MARCH 2018

Dear Friend,

There is a prayer which fits in very well with the time of Lent. It reminds us that we must neither become too complacent nor too comfortable in our journey of faith. Instead, we are to be ready for God to speak to us and lead us where He wills, whether this be to places we are happy with, or to places of challenge.

The question for us is:

are we willing to pray such a prayer?

Disturb us, Lord, when
We are too well pleased with ourselves,
When our dreams have come true
Because we have dreamed too little,
When we arrived safely
Because we sailed too close to the shore.

Disturb us, Lord, when
With the abundance of things we possess
We have lost our thirst
For the waters of life;
Having fallen in love with life,
We have ceased to dream of eternity
And in our efforts to build a new earth,
We have allowed our vision
Of the new Heaven to dim.

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly,
To venture on wider seas
Where storms will show your mastery;
Where losing sight of land,
We shall find the stars.
We ask You to push back
The horizons of our hopes;
And to push into the future
In strength, courage, hope, and love.

May we be willing to let God disturb us as we journey through this Lenten season.

In His name,
Martyn
