DAILY READINGS

*"I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,
'See, the home of God is among mortals.
He will dwell with them;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them.'"*

Revelation 21:3

MARCH 2019

Dear Friend,

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven:

God has made everything suitable for its time.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 & 11

We have reached the point where my ministry among you has come to an end. I and my family are moving to pastures new where we will face new challenges and get to know new people, and you will continue to meet the challenge of serving God in this place while looking to the future.

As the writer of Ecclesiastes reminds us, everything has its time and there is a season for everything. The season for my ministry in Woodley has come to an end, but that does not mean that God's call on my life, nor on the life of the church, has come to an end.

God still has work for us all to do. Some of it will be new work and some of it will clearly build on what has gone before. What is important is that we continue to listen for His call and seek to respond to it as best we can - trusting that He will guide us and equip us for the work that He calls us to.

I have enjoyed my time serving God in Woodley and, while I look forward with excitement to what God has set before me in Swanage, Wareham, and Poole, I also earnestly pray that God will richly bless you as you seek to follow His call and continue to serve Him in this community.

In His name,
Martyn
