Psalm 145:8-9

OCTOBER 2018

Dear Friend,

We are entering the month of October, which is the month of the Methodist annual congregation count, so it is appropriate to be reading Numbers.

Myself, I am still reflecting on the hymn we sung at Harvest: "Autumn Days" by Estelle White. I do wonder where she lived to see jet planes doing mid-air refuelling? Why did her milkman only sing in the autumn? Why have the swallows not pushed off back to Africa at the end of August (global warming)? Do minnows dart down stream in the autumn?

Born 1925 in South Shields and in an army band during the war, she spent some time in Canada, so maybe that's where a lot of her song comes from? She returned to be a part-time nun and then a teacher of theology and music in north of England. She got an MA in Greek and Hebrew after retiring and ran a church choir in Dewsbury for many years. She wrote 160 hymns before she died in 2011.

Let's reflect on her words:

*So I mustn't forget,
no, I mustn't forget
to say a great big thank-you,
I mustn't forget.*

In His name,
AJAx
